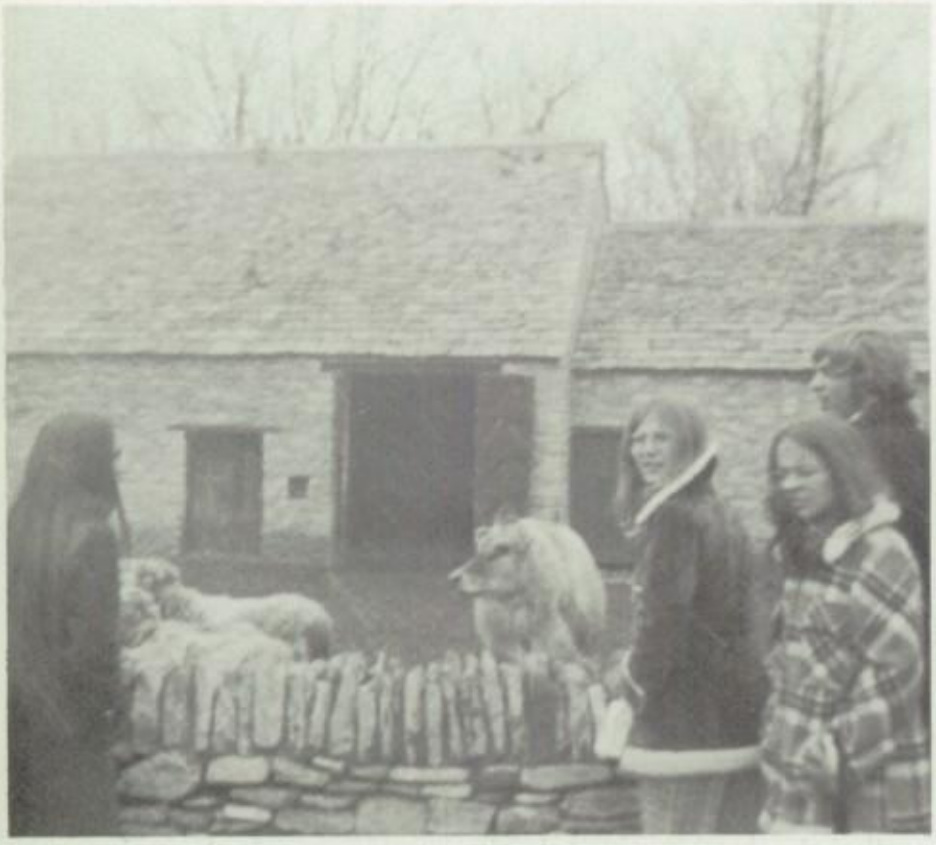
Senior Class Trips



During the past year, the seniors have shared two trips together. The first trip took them to Detroit, Michigan. There they visited Greenfield Village and the Henry Ford Museum. The weather for the occasion wasn't the greatest, but the seniors joked and laughed as if they really cared. After their tours, the seniors saw the movie, "American Graffiti."

The next trip took the seniors to Columbus. There the seniors toured the state capital and learned more about the Ohio government.

Both of these trips added knowledge and memorable moments of friendship to each of the attending seniors.

Graduation: Beginning of a New Road

Class Flower - Mum
Class Colors - Deep Purple and Lilac
Class Song - "Seasons in the Sun"
Motto - I'm Not Afraid of Tomorrow
For I Have Seen Yesterday
And I Love Today.

The following poem expressed the thoughts of the seniors on this day.

"That person is a success
who has lived well,
laughed often and loved much;
Who has gained the respect of intelligent men & the love
of children;
Who has filled his niche
and accomplished his task
Whether by an improved poppy,
A perfect poem
or a rescued soul;
Who never lacked appreciation
of earth's beauty
or failed to express it;
Who looked for the best in others
and gave the best he had.
His memory is a benediction."

In Memory

THOMAS PETERS

A cresent-shaped moon on the crest of a cloud
Seals the earth in a moonlight white shroud.
To a lonely grave my restless thoughts fly,
And I ask myself why my friend should die.

If goodness and truth are so tragically taken,
To what plight must malice and fault be forsaken?
For goodness and truth and worth be possessed,
With merit and virtue and love he was blessed.

A cold wind blows from a northernland
I touch cold marble with trembling hand . . .
Can life itself hold so much for tomorrow
That its going can cause such relentless sorrow?

For sadness in youth is sorrow enough;
Grey mist to cover a world of light . . .
But death in youth is grief without end;
Gone the sun to eternal night.

During this past year the class of 1975 has really been super busy.

To start it off, class officers were chosen to be the leaders. They were as follows:

President--Anna Mae Wannemacher
Vice-President--Janice Langhals
Secretary--Blaine Martin
Treasurer--Joe Koester

The next order of business was the candy sale which brought some money into the class treasury and put competititve spirit into the class members. Top salesman was Cathy Archdeacon and running a close second was Margie Nussbaum.

Next was the preparation and planning for the annual big event - the Jr.-Sr. Prom. A lot of work and frustration went into planning the prom, trying to make it the best one ever.

The group launched the Alumni Basketball Game, in which previous basketball stars battled the Big Green. The club also held Parent's Basketball Night. This was intended to give the parents of the boys just begining the sport a chance to see them in action.

The officers for the 1973-74 year were: President, Bob Gasser; Vice-President, Vaughn Horstman; Secretary, Cindy Wittler; Treasurer, Dale Koester; and Student Council Representative, Terry Miller.

for Future Careers

During the past year the I.O.E. Club has been involved in many different activities. To begin the year off, it became a member of O.E.A. (Office Education Association) and received a charter.

In November many of the members participated in the Regional O.E.A. Convention in Bowling Green, and helped elect Regional officers for the current year. The club also held a 50's dance. At this dance, the guys came with slicked back hair and high water pants, and the girls with ponytails, midi-skirts, white socks, saddle shoes, and just about everything imaginable. As a club, the members went to PanRec Arena in Lima to go Ice Skating.

Not only is the club fun; but its educational too. Every month a speaker is brought into the classroom to talk about the newest in typewriters to personal grooming. The club also had a field trip to Central Mutual Ins. Co. in Van Wert, Ohio.

as King and Queen

On the night of Saturday, January 5, 1974, Ottoville High School held their Second Annual Homecoming. The crowning ceremonies took place between the halftime of the Van Wert and Ottoville basketball game.

The ceremonies began with the introducing of the court by Dale Koester. As the Royalty passed through the two rows of honorary guard, which consisted of the Varsity basketball players, the song "Time in a Bottle" was being played.

Attendants were given corsages and boutonnieres of red roses. The king was given a boutonniere and banner and the queen carried a bouquet of red roses.

On March 29, 1974, the Senior Class sponsored a dance honoring the Royal Court. The theme of the dance was "Seasons in the Sun" and "Trap Rock" provided the music.

Coach Kortokrax

OUR GOAL IS ALWAYS AIMING FOR A WINNING SEASON. Coaches and players should participate in athletics with the idea of trying to win--this is our goal, a winning season.

OHS has a respectable basketball tradition. I expected this years team to carry on this fine tradition--to give the maximum of their abilities. This is success regardless of record.

Leading this years team were co-captains Sonny Gasser and John Schlagbaum who were also selected as the Most Valuable Players. In addition, John was team leader in rebounds (11.7 per game) and steals (3.6 per game). Excellent effort was put forth by Rick Miller who won the 110% Award and was the teams leading field goal (43.8%) and foul shooter (76.4%). The team leader in assists was Keith Gasser with 4.3 per game.

Congratulations team for your fine attitudes and endeavors of this season, and Thank you for helping me gain my 200th victory as coach of the "Big Green" this season.

Coach's Message

The 1973-74 reserve team finished with a 10-8 season, but this was a deceiving type of record. The beginning games found our young inexperienced sophomores making costly mistakes at the end of the ball games, but as they matured we were winning.

I felt the turning point of our season and the winning attitude we needed was at the Pandora game when the boys never gave up and were able to win in double overtime. The teamwork and co-operation was at its highest point after this game. Each ball player was able to contribute at some time or another to win games for our team.

It was a very interesting and enjoyable season for myself and I was very pleased to be associated with such fine individuals as well as such a fine basketball team. Good luck in your varsity basketball careers at Ottoville.

Fayette Invitational - 7th Place

PCL Champions - 56 points

Sectional - 4th place

*Low score wins

PCL Champs

Marathon Winner,

Frank Shorter once stated, "Because you lose now, does not mean you will lose later on."

This was the case, we had only two runners back with little interest in the being. We worked hard in practice and stressed the importance on team effort in order to achieve victory. We took our defeats early in the season, but when the day of the county meet came, all seven runners gave 110% effort, and the victory was ours.

Congratulations to all members of the cross-country team for a successful season. Always remember, there is next year and it will require an even greater effort to stay on top.

Cross-country coach,

Robert Kapla
